Fresh food from scratch daily
in our DC local kitchen

Luncheras Di Si is a local and family-owned business that has been providing fresh, nutritious, and delicious school meals since 2014. We are committed to outstanding customer service and believe that open communication is key. Our team is always available by phone, text, or email to support families and school staff.

Our meals are prepared fresh daily, never frozen, and delivered under strict food safety standards to ensure quality and freshness. Working closely with each school, we offer a diverse menu featuring Latin American, Mexican, Salvadoran, Indian, Venezuelan, and classic American favorites, while using ingredients sourced from local farms and businesses whenever possible.

We look forward to serving your students with meals they will enjoy every day.
